

Hugo Partida

Vice President, Purchased Services

Hugo brings more than 20 years of proven experience delivering customized solutions for healthcare clients and business clients through a wide range of management consulting services.

Hugo has held positions in healthcare supply chain management, group purchasing contracting and member services, performance improvement consulting with healthcare providers. Hugo has also supported regional health systems with integration of standardization of services and supply chain operations through the deployment and successful management of several regional shared services and purchasing cooperatives

Prior to joining TPC, Hugo held leadership positions with the non-labor performance improvement practices of several global professional services consulting firms, held member services positions with national group purchasing organizations and with experience in supply chain roles.

Hugo earned a bachelor's degree in Business Management from Northwood University and a Masters In Finance from the University of Dallas.